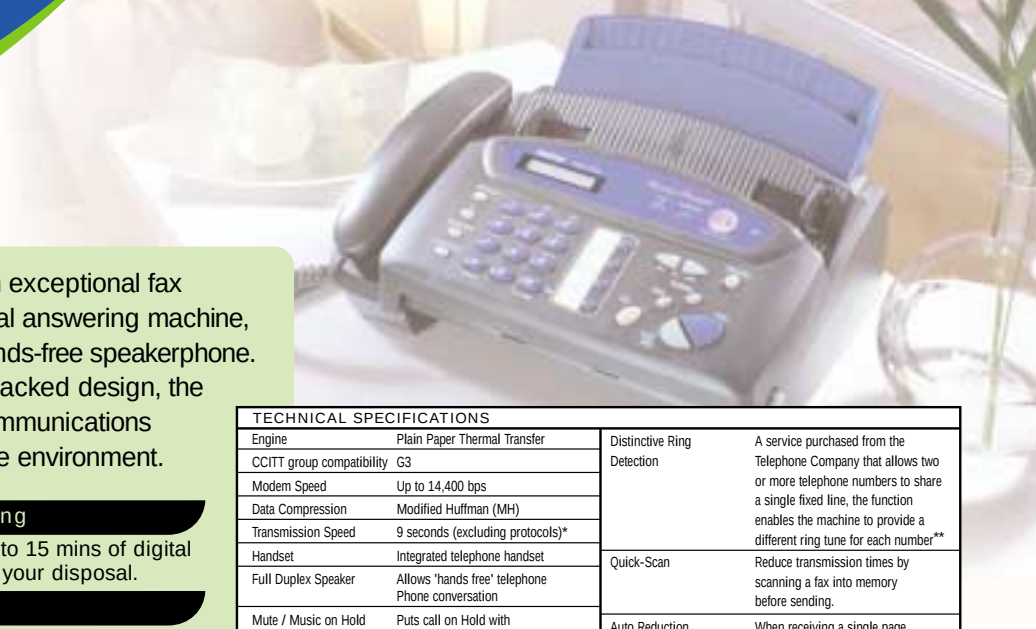
Digital Answering Machine

FAX-T76



This high quality plain paper fax with exceptional fax management facilities boasts a digital answering machine, integrated telephone handset and hands-free speakerphone. Housed within its stylish and feature packed design, the FAX-T76 represents the all in one communications solution for the small office and home environment.

Up to 15 mins digital recording

Its a comfort to know you have up to 15 mins of digital quality answerphone messages at your disposal.

Remote message retrieval

Collect your answerphone messages from a different location at anytime.

Integrated telephone handset

With the reassurance of a conventional telephone, this device can exist as comfortably in the office space as it can in the home environment.

'Hands-free' speakerphone

In a busy office environment, multi-tasking is commonplace. This feature allows you to make a call 'hands-free' and hold a conversation whilst working.

Easy to use design

This modern, compact design has great benefits ideally suited for use in both the home office and domestic home environment.

On screen programming

The large 16 character LCD display can intuitively guide you through the comprehensive capabilities of the FAX-T76

54 speed dial locations

Easily self program up to 54 vital suppliers, contacts or friends, then telephone or fax them at a touch of a button.

10 page auto document feed

Save time by allowing the FAX-T76 to handle your multi-page documents whilst unattended.

30 sheet paper capacity

Cassette storage of up to 30 pages of plain paper.

20 page memory*

Stores up to 20 pages of a received document when the paper tray has run out.

Auto Fax/Tel Management

The FAX-T76 can automatically detect whether an incoming call is a fax or voice call. Inbound calls can then be either routed to the phone, fax or answering machine.

Multi-copying

Whilst in copier mode the FAX-T76 can make convenient copies of your plain paper documents.
